

Dear friends,

Thanksgiving

Sometimes kind and generous things happen and most who benefit from the actions don't know how or when they happened. I bet plenty of parents and others could relate to being the 'do-ers' of such actions - and might even add the comment that sometimes, some who benefit mightn't even notice that it happened at all.

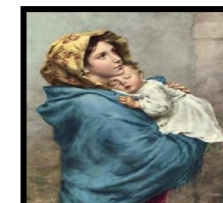

In that spirit of unseen service, I want to make this week's thanksgiving message from us to a small group of regulars: It's those who carefully wash and iron altar linen for the church and sacraments, who tidy and rearrange flowers and decorations and attend to the subtle and particular aspects of tidiness and organisation around the church building. Thank you from us all for your caring service. Such unseen service as that, is no doubt done right out of the core of your goodness. As we briefly highlight you in this week's bulletin, we can also say THANK YOU for the way your service in the background can encourage many others for whatever service in the background might be part of their lives too. I bet many who are reading this have parts of their lives that can sometimes push them a bit towards the limits of perseverance; or parts of life in which the slogging away can feel discouraging.

May Jesus, the one who came to serve more than to be served, give you a knowing wink; may he walk lightly and joyfully with you in each next step of your 'yes', in the humble service that's part of your alive and loving faith in 2020.

Faith enrichment – opportunities – and the current priest of Emu Plains

As you know, part of my coming to Emu Plains parish was about the Bishop's and diocese's desire for the Institute for Mission to trial some faith enrichment programs for the greater Penrith and lower mountains region. The latest offering was a day time mini retreat process last Wednesday for those in the second half of life. The next is an excellent night time session on the Scriptures, especially placed in Lent (Wednesday 25th March) – see the brochures in the church foyer. And the next after that is a Jesuit retreat experience that people can do mostly in their own time at home. This will begin on 19th April here in the parish, with a Jesuit priest visiting from overseas to guide the experience. More on that from next week.

I was told this week that some people are still unsure about the Diocese's Institute for Mission (IFM) where I work each day. It's a team, in which I serve as the director, that develops and offers ongoing 'life and faith formation'. We run programs and sessions and develop resources and ministry enrichment for any adults 18+ to seniors across the Diocese of Parramatta.

OUR LADY OF THE WAY
PARISH EMU PLAINS

What does the LORD require of you but to act justly, to love tenderly, and to walk humbly with your God MICAH 6:8

The word 'mission' in the title refers to each person's mission in life - the part we each have, as baptised Christians, in the mission of God. Our IFM base is a building at 1-5 Marion St Blacktown. You might like to check the regular updates of opportunities displayed in the church foyer – and/or check the website www.ifm.org.au - I hope this assists people's understanding. Around the middle of this year 2020, I'll be reviewing, with some reps of the parish and with the Diocese, if there seems to be a 'fit' and ongoing local desire for this IFM connection in the region here. In the meantime I'll certainly try to serve the parish however I'm able, as I also honour the various ways people are sharing in service and responsibility for the mission and operation of Our Lady of the Way.

With friendship in God's mission. fr Paul
